

Commissioning Support Services

Public bodies are splitting the purchaser – provider functions as they develop their commissioning models and Agencia is supporting private, public and third sector organisations through a variety of strands to ensure they are in the best shape for the future.

With significant expertise in developing commissioning models in the public sector throughout the UK, Agencia's expertise and track record ensures you can trust to work with you by 'teaching you to fish' and in being 'the best catch'.

As competition increases for the delivery of services, it is important that you are as efficient and effective as possible to ensure that the outcomes required are achieved.

The migration to a focus of payment-by-results outcomes measure is not a new concept to many sectors. Agencia's expertise will support you in achieving the maximum outcome and impact within the available resources.

Agencia will work with you as a
